Visit our virtual booth, where you will be able to download our brochures and handouts, discover important web links to help you quickly browse important school information, and best of all, chat live with our admissions representatives and current students who will answer your questions.

Global College will also have a video chat available to answer questions on about our Global Studies curriculum and the application process at 7:00-8:00pm EST on Thursday, November 5th.

We hope to "see you" there!
