

Business Opportunities for Student Success Mission Statement

The mission of Long Island University and the School of Business at the Brooklyn Campus is to prepare our diverse student body for meaningful careers and successful lives in a global society”[1]. Business Opportunities for Student Success aims to advance this mission by developing our students’ leadership and management skills, presenting new opportunities for career advancement, and increasing their involvement in the LIU and greater metropolitan community. The goal is to create leaders who strive to achieve “academic excellence, individual achievement, personal growth, cultural enrichment and civic responsibility”[2] which Long Island University pledges to all of its students.

Business Opportunities for Student Success Description

Business Opportunities for Student Success is a new leadership program designed to engage business students at Long Island University. The goal of the program is to offer a variety of experiences, including specific skill building workshops, alumni panels and networking events, which will give students additional resources to grow as individuals and community members. Business Opportunities for Student Success was developed by a team of administrators, students, and faculty to give students the very best opportunities for advancement both personally and professionally.
